

When viewing photo and photo details, user is able to toggle through all photos and see how corresponding details.

When viewing photo and photo details, user is able to toggle through their photos within the album collection and see how corresponding details.

When all photos are displayed the view is the selected 'view'. The user can then view a 'grid' of photos. From the grid, the user can view details of a photo which will take the user to the photo.